Preface

The Sādhanā Shṛṅkhalā was one of the most fulfilling and spiritually uplifting activities undertaken during the Tercentenary Year.

Under Pūjya Swāmiji's guidance, the Shṛṅkhalā was designed into a 5-day module to include recitation of Lalitā Sahasranāma, Navarātra Nityapāthah, 12th & 15th Chapter of the Bhagawad Gītā, Shivamānasa Pūjā, Devī Anushthānam, and Pūjana-s. This relay chain of spiritual practices was started at the Durgā Parameshwarī Temple, Kārlā, in February 2008, to mark the commencement of the Tercentenary Year. From then, the 5-day sequential chain of prayers and pūjana-s was conducted from sabhā to sabhā in a planned manner, with tremendous enthusiasm, devotion, consistency and discipline, culminating at the Shri Chitrāpur Math in Feb 2009. A manual- the Sādhanā Shṛṅkhalā- containing all the above mentioned recitations was made available in July 2008.

True to expectations, a need was felt and expressed by devotees to extend this activity beyond the Tercentenary, and with Pūjya Swāmiji's blessings, we presented the more elaborate 'Sādhanā Pañchakam' book set to help sādhanā-s continue their spiritual journey. Instead of only reprinting the contents of the Sādhanā Shṛṅkhalā, it was suggested that the texts be transcribed, and wherever possible, translated, into English.

Thus the new book - the Sādhanā Pañchakam - now had two volumes:

Volume 1 contained the Saṁskṛta text, the transliteration and translation of the Sabhā Prārambha and Samāpti Prārthanā-s, Navarātra Nityapāṭha, Devi Anuśthānam, Gītā Dhyānam, Bhagavad Gītā Chapters 12 and 15 and the saṁskṛta text and transliteration of Lalitā Sahasranāma Stotra.

Volume 2 contained the saṁskṛta text, transliteration and translation of the Guru Pādukā Stotra, Shri Parijñānāshram Trayodashī, the Pūjā Pūrvāṅgam, the Guru Pūjana, Shiva Pūjana , Devi Pūjana and Shivamānasa Pūjā. Explanations of how to perform the Pūjana-s were also included.

Beautiful photos from Kishan Kalliānpur, Ravi Sorāb and the Math archives, and very artistic illustrations from Vaidehī Savnālī enriched the get-up of the books.

On popular demand, we now present the second edition of the Pañchakam with a few changes. We have also added an appendix on how tithi-s and days of the week are referred to in Saṁskṛta.

We remain ever grateful to our beloved Gurudeva, His Holiness Parama Pūjya Shrimat Sadyojāt Shaṅkarāshram Swāmiji for His guidance and inspiration, and for leading us along this path of spiritual bliss.

Shri Gurupādukā Stotram

1. Having bowed down to the great Guru-s in Veda-s wise,
Who upon the Path of Divine Consciousness be,
I shall tell you about the act of atonement-
Which, to all doctrines, is not contrary.

 2. Remembering the Divine Guru's Pādukā-s-
Tis the Truth Supreme, tis reparation!
It dissolves impurities that are born of Negligent acts and offences done.

 3. By the mere touch of the dust of Whose feet,
Upon one's head Shiva manifests
And with Pārvatī abides there in joy,
Tis upon His Pāduka-s that my mind rests.

 4. With a devotion that seeks to be one with the Guru,
To Whom the true disciple offers his all-
His entire self, his complete being-
Tis His Pādukā-s that I recall.

5. At the base of Whose feet lie the accomplished ones,
Just the top of Whose feet, the mountains attain!
At Whose ankles lie the clusters of stars!
Tis His Pādukā-s that in my mind reign!

 6. At His Mūlādhāra resides the Primeval Energy!
At His chakra-s of the heart and between the eyes
Exist the Yoginī-s that number sixty four,
Tis upon His Pādukā-s that my mind lies.

 7. Upon His head, the two states exist
Of Shakti and Shiva- portrayed red and white
And between the two abides the Shāmbhava state!
Tis upon His Pādukā-s my mind does alight.

 8. Everything else is of this mundane world,
Recalling the Guru is beyond the ordinary!
Therefore is this reflection upon His Pādukā-s,
Whence all sins are destroyed completely!

 9. The word Pādukā is a mantra in itself-
Made of Pā, Du and Kā- the syllables three-
Pā for protection, Du-destruction of evil
Kā-the fulfilment of all desires that be!
Reflecting upon the meaning of the words
That to the mantra, Pādukā, are wed,
One must offer one's worship to the Pādukā-s
Visualizing them at the crown of one's head.

10. He who reads, on waking in the morn,
The Pādukā-stotra of the venerable Guru,
Just as a heap of hay is by fire destroyed,
So are all his sins destroyed too.
11. O Revered Guru, where You reside,
For us, is the pilgrimage spot- Kāshī.
The water with which Your feet are washed
Is, for us, the Gaṅgā, the Jāhnavī.
For us, You truly are, O Guru,
Lord Vishveshvara's physical form,
For, the knowledge of the Supreme-that which saves-
From the words You speak, is truly born!
12. Surely that place is Gayā for us,
Where the earth, by Your footprint, is marked!
And we consider it to be Prayāga,
When an opportunity to meet You is sparked!
That another exists apart from You-
We admit not to another's such worth-
Who as 'Lord of all sacred spots'
Lives here upon this earth!

6. To the One whose gaze, upon a dog, upon all,
Fell with the grace of complete equanimity.
To that Wise One, the testimony of spiritual vision,
To Parijñānāshram Guru, I bow wholeheartedly.
7. To the One loved by the Sāraswata samāja,
To the Perfect Worshipper of all that is Saraswatī,
To the One Who is so, to Parijñānāshram Guru,
I pay my respects most delightedly!
8. To the Wise One learned in every knowledge,
To the One distinguished for His austerity too,
Who became the haven of the aged through
His compassion,
I pay my obeisance to Him, to Parijñānāshram Guru,
9. To the One Who emulates the All Pervasive Lord -
The Creator of the universe where everything does stay -
By creating a museum to house artefacts,
To Parijñānāshram Guru, salutations I pay.
10. Infused with the Gītā, a Master of creativity too,
His hymns were fragrant with Vedānta's scriptural essence,
Yet foremost He was, in considering them not His!
To Him, to Parijñānāshram Guru, my obeisance!

Pūjā-pūrvāṅgam

List of Articles Required for the Worship

1. Vighraha of the Deity or a small pair of silver Pādukā-s.
2. Plate / Somasūtra - a vessel with an opening at one end to allow the bath-water, the abhisheka water, to drain. (This will initially hold the Vighraha till after the abhisheka is performed.)
3. Chaurāṅga - a short stool/ a small platform upon which to keep the Somasūtra.
4. Āsana - a mat for the sādḥaka to sit on.
5. One Kalasha - water jar - filled with water.
6. Snāna-pātra- the vessel used to perform the abhisheka (the bath). Fill this pātra with water.
7. Āchamana-pātra - two sets - a small vessel with a spoon and placed upon a small plate - one for your personal use during the pūjā and one for the upachāra-s concerning the Deity. Fill these pātra-s with water.
8. Tīrtha-pātra- the vessel which collects the bath water.
9. A plate adorned with flower-petals for keeping the Vighraha (Deity) after the snāna (the bath).
10. Lamp- with oil. Two long wicks entwined and placed in the lamp. The lamp should be large to contain enough oil for the flame to last throughout the pūjā.
11. One small ghee lamp for dīpa.
12. An ārati shaped like a flat spoon. The ārati should have some space between the handle and the spoon for you to place some kuṅkuma and flower petals. Place in it two wicks that have been smeared with oil and entwined, along with a piece of camphor. Set the wicks and the camphor aflame at the same time when performing the āraṭi. Alternatively you could use two lamps set in a plate- one with a ghee drenched wick and the other with camphor- and place some kuṅkuma and flower petals in the plate.

13. Agarbatti/ Dhūpa Stand - stand for the incense stick.
14. Conch shell and stand
15. Large plate to keep
 - flowers, flower petals, bilva and tulasī leaves.
 - eight flowers (preferably white) for Ashtapushpa-archanā in Shiva-pūjanam
 - a medium sized plate containing gandha, akshatāḥ, kuṅkuma, haḷadī-(sandalwood paste, unbroken grains of raw rice, kuṅkuma, turmeric powder).
 - dakshinā (money offering) and the betel leaf and areca nut.
16. Small bowl to keep the naivedyam (food offered to the Deity)
17. Small bowl for the ashtottara-shata-nāmāvaliḥ-archanā.
 - to hold flower petals (Guru and Shiva-pūjanam)
 - to hold kuṅkuma (Devī-pūjanam)
18. Plate to keep used matchsticks and such.
19. Two napkins. One to wipe the Deity/Pādukā-s after snāna and one to wipe your hands whenever needed.

Note : All metal vessels/spoons/containers/bowls to be made of copper, brass or silver.

List of Materials Required for the Worship

1. Match Box
 2. Gandha - sandalwood paste
 3. Akshatāh - unbroken grains of raw rice
 4. Kuṅkuma
 5. Halādi - turmeric (for Devī pūjanam)
 6. Bhasma - sacred ash (for Shiva pūjanam)
 7. Flowers
 8. Flower petals
 9. Bilva-patra - bilva leaves
 10. Tulasī - at least ten 'dala-s'- leaves
 11. Long cotton wicks - six in number (three entwined pairs)
 12. Oil- preferably til oil (sesame seed oil)
 13. Karpūra- camphor
 14. Agarbatti- incense
 15. Naivedyam- food offered to the Deity
 16. Betel leaf and areca nut
 17. Dakshinā- money offered to the Deity

Face north, east or west when doing a pūjā. Place the chaurāṅga in front of you at a distance of about 9 inches. Place the Pādukā-s/Vigraha, in a somasūtra upon the chaurāṅga. The somasūtra's opening should either be at your right hand or facing north. It should not face south. Place the tīrtha-pātra on the floor under the opening of the somasūtra. Place a flower upon the Pādukā-s/Vigraha.

With reference to your position, place the large lamp to the farthest left hand corner of the chaurāṅga. On the floor, on the left of the chaurāṅga, place the following:

The bell, the small ghee lamp for the dipa, the camphor lamp, the āraṭi, the incense, the matchbox, the oil. (To help you remember - all the 'fire' articles - the exceptions being the bell-are to the left of the chaurāṅga). On the floor, at the right of the chaurāṅga (sādḥaka's right hand side), place the following:

The plate containing gandha, akṣhatāḥ, naivedyam, kuṅkuma, haḷādī and bhasma; the plate with the flowers, flower petals, the bilva and tulasī leaves; the plate with dakṣhiṇa and the betel leaf and areca nut; the kalasha, the conch stand.

In front of you, between your āsana and chaurāṅga, arrange to place the two sets of āchamana-pātra-s. Leave some space in front of you to your right to place the kalasha (it will be transferred to this position during the pūrvāṅgam), and some space to place the naivedyam.

पूजा-पूर्वाङ्गम्

Pūjā-pūrvāṅgam- Rituals that precede a pūjā

Note : Translations of the shloka-s of Pūjā-pūrvāṅgam and the three Pūjanam-s are in the appendices.

1) आचमनम् - Āchamanam

With your left hand, pour a spoonful of water from your āchamana-pātra in your right palm. Sip this water (without making a sound). Do this three times while chanting the first three lines as given below. When chanting the fourth line, pour a spoonful of water in your right palm and let the water run down your right anāmikā - the ring finger and madhyamā - the middle finger into the plate. Do not use the tarjanī - the index finger.

ॐ ऐं आत्मतत्त्वं शोधयामि नमः स्वाहा ।

ॐ ह्रीं विद्यातत्त्वं शोधयामि नमः स्वाहा ।

ॐ क्लीं शिवतत्त्वं शोधयामि नमः स्वाहा ।

Om hrīm vidyātattvaṃ shodhayāmi namaḥ svāhā

Om klīm shivatattvaṃ shodhayāmi namaḥ svāhā

Om aim hrīm klīm sarvatattvaṃ shodhayāmi namaḥ svāhā

2) प्राणायामः - Prāṇāyāmaḥ

nostril and breathe out through the left. This forms one cycle. Perform three such cycles. Exhale over twice the count that you inhale (for example: inhale for five counts and exhale for ten counts). You may use your lshṭamantra to measure a count. Wash your right hand after prāᅅnāyāmaᅅ with water from your āchamana-pātra.

3) स्वस्तिवाचनम् - Svastivāchanam - Prayer invoking auspiciousness

Sit with hands joined in the namaskāra-mudrā while chanting the mantra and then offer akshatāᅅ to the Deity using your ring finger, the middle finger and the thumb - the mᅅga mudrā - when the mantra is complete. The mᅅga mudrā is used at all times during the course of the pūrvāᅅgam and the pūjā for offering flowers, akshtāᅅ, bhasma, kuᅅkuma. Avoid using the index finger- the tarjanī- at all times.

5) सङ्कल्पः - Saṅkalpaḥ

The saṅkalpaḥ states which Deity's pūjā is being performed, where, when, by whom and for what purpose. Before doing the saṅkalpaḥ, collate the following information - Country, region, city, year (according to Hindu calendar) whether dakṣhiṇāyana or uttarāyana (which half of the year), season, month (according to Hindu calendar) whether shukla-pakṣha or kṛṣṇa-pakṣha (the bright or dark fortnight), 'tithi'-date (according to Hindu calendar), Hindu name of the day of the week and your gotra. Please prepare your saṅkalpaḥ in writing according to the details given above for every pūjanam for easy reference. (For your ready reference we have provided the tithi-s and the days of the week in the Appendix 6)

Hold a spoonful of water (from your personal āchamana -pātra) in your left hand. Pick a tulasī-dala in your right hand with your thumb, middle (madhyamā) and ring (anāmikā) fingers and hold it just under the spoon of water. Chant the saṅkalpaḥ. When the saṅkalpaḥ is over, pour the water over the tulasī-dala so that the water falls into the plate of the āchamana-pātra. Offer the tulasī-dala to the Deity. (Gotra for married women - Gotra after marriage to be taken.)

6) घण्टापूजनम् - Ghaṇṭā-pūjanam

ॐ आगमार्थं तु देवानां गमनार्थं तु रक्षसाम् ।

घण्टानादं प्रकुर्वीत पश्चाद् घण्टां प्रपूजयेत् ॥

Om āgamārthaṁ tu Devānāṁ gamanārthaṁ tu rakshasām

7) वरुणध्यानम् - Varuṇa-dhyānam

With your right anāmikā, take some gandha and with that draw an aṣṭadala -  - on the floor in front of you, towards your right. Draw the vertical line first, then cross it in the centre with a horizontal line, then draw the diagonal lines and finally, join all the ends - starting from the topmost one and moving right and around - with curved lines to resemble an eight petalled flower. In the centre of the aṣṭadala apply some gandha and place some akṣhataḥ and petals. Place the kalasha of water on it. Do namaskāra while chanting the following shloka-s: (Once the Kalasha-sthāpanā is done do not move the Kalasha but use the spoon of the āchamana-pātra reserved for the deity, to take water from the Kalasha whenever required. The spoon of this āchamana-pātra is reserved only for the Deity.)

8) कलशपूजनम् - Kalasha-pūjanam

Apply gandha at four points around the centre of the kalasha, clockwise, in the following order-east, south, west and north. On the gandha, place some akṣhatāḥ and petals while chanting the following shloka-s:

सर्वे समुद्राः सरितस्तीर्थानि जलदा नदाः ।

आयान्तु देवपूजार्थं दुरितक्षयकारकाः ॥१॥

Sarve samudrāḥ saritas-tīrthāni jaladā nadāḥ

RgvedoṤtha yajurvedo sāmavedo hyatharvaṇaḥ

Āṅgaishcha sahitāḥ sarve kalashe tu samāshritāḥ-3

ॐ भूर्भुवः स्वः अस्मिन्कलशे वरुणं साङ्गं सपरिवारं

सायुधं सशक्तिकम् आवाहयामि पूजयामि ॥४॥

Om bhūrbhuvah svaḥ asmin-kalashē Varuṇaṁ sāṅgaṁ saparivāraṁ, sāyudhaṁ, sa-shaktikaṁ,

āvāhayāmi pūjayāmi-4

- i) Hold your hands in dhenu mudrā over the kalasha and gently rotate the wrists 5 times clockwise, chanting
ॐ वं वरुणाय नमः Om vaṁ Varuṇāya namaḥ

Dhenu mudra: Join your palms in a namaskāra mudra in front of you with all your fingers spread out. Let us consider the little and the ring fingers of both hands as Unit 1, the middle and the index fingers as Unit 2 and the thumbs as Unit 3. With a slight movement slip your right hand towards yourself so that the fingers of one hand alternate with the fingers of the other.

Keep the base of the palms touching while creating a hollow in your palms. The palms themselves will have convexed outwards and the fingers too will appear crossed and jutting outwards.

Unit 1: Move the little fingers in such a way so as to join their tips with that of the crossed ring fingers of the opposite hand.

Unit 2: Move the index fingers to join their tips with that of the crossed middle fingers of the opposite hand.

Unit 3: Join the thumbs together. Do not cross the thumbs.

The four joined tips of the fingers represent the udder of a cow, Dhenu, and the hand gesture is therefore known as the Dhenu-mudrā.

- ii) Then do the matsya-mudrā over the kalasha. With palms facing down, rest the right hand over the left hand with the knuckles slightly jutting upwards to resemble a fish. Rotate thumbs of both hands forwards gently 5 times while chanting ॐ वं वरुणाय नमः Om vaṁ Varuṇāya namaḥ, with each rotation.
- iii) Form the aṅkusha mudrā with your right hand - At the level of your head, make a closed fist of your right hand except for the middle finger which will be kept upright. Rest the thumb upon the index finger. Bring the hand down in a curve - the madhyamā moving from head level towards the water in the kalasha. While doing this, touch your right elbow with your left hand and chant the following shloka:

गङ्गे च यमुने चैव गोदावरि सरस्वति ।
नर्मदे सिन्धु कावेरि जलेऽस्मिन् सन्निधिं कुरु ॥५॥

Gaṅge cha Yamune chaiva Godāvāri Sarasvati

Sarvopachārārthe gandhākshata-puṣhpāṇi samarpayāmi

Offer gandha, akshatāḥ and petals to the water in the kalasha.

Do namaskāra and chant

ॐ पूर्वे ऋग्वेदाय नमः । ॐ दक्षिणे यजुर्वेदाय नमः ।
 ॐ पश्चिमे सामवेदाय नमः । ॐ उत्तरे अथर्वणवेदाय नमः ।

9) कलशप्रार्थना - Kalasha-prārthanā

With cupped hands, facing upwards and joined at the little fingers, down to the base of your palms (the añjali mudrā) with fingers pointing towards the kalasha, chant the following shloka:

त्वत्प्रसादादिमां पूजां कर्तुमीहे जलोद्भव ।
 सान्निध्यं कुरु मे देव प्रसन्नो भव सर्वदा ॥

Tvatprasādādīmāṃ pūjāṃ kartumīhe jalodbhava
 Sānnidhyaṃ kuru me Deva prasanno bhava sarvadā

Join hands first in the añjali mudrā and then in the namaskāra mudrā when chanting the following:

प्रसन्नो भव । वरदो भव ।

Prasanno bhava | Varado bhava |

Join hands in the namaskāra mudrā when chanting

अनया पूजया वरुणाद्यावाहिता देवताः प्रीयन्तां न मम ।

Anayā pūjayā Varuṇādyāvāhitā Devatāḥ

priyantāṃ na mama

Keep aside the âchamana-pâtra used so far. This âchamana-pâtra will be used again later for washing your hands -once before offering the naivedyam and again just after performing the ârati. Place the second âchamana-pâtra in front of you. Pour two spoonfuls of sanctified (abhimantrita) water from the kalasha into it. This water is to be used exclusively for the Deity. Also pour two spoonfuls of water from the kalasha into the snâna-pâtra.

1 0) शङ्खपूजनम् - Shaṅkha-pūjanam

Rinse the shaṅkha, the conch shell, with a spoonful of water from the âchamana-pâtra containing the abhimantrita water. Place it on its stand. Pour some abhimantrita water into the shaṅkha and adorn the shaṅkha with gandha, akṣhatāḥ and flowers. Do namaskâra and chant the following shloka:

ॐ शं पाञ्चजन्याय नमः ।

सर्वोपचारार्थे गन्धाक्षतपुष्पाणि समर्पयामि नमस्करोमि ।

Om shaṅ Pāñchajanyāya namaḥ

Sarvopachârârthe gandhâkṣhata-puṣhpāṇi samarpayāmi, namaskaromi

If you do not have a shaṅkha, take a spoonful of abhimantrita water from your âchamana-pâtra, put gandha, akṣhatāḥ, flowers in it and use it for the next step. Do not chant the above shloka.

1 1) प्रोक्षणम् - Prokṣhaṇam

Hold the shaṅkha/spoon in your left hand. Take a tulasî-dala in the palm of your right hand, pour some abhimantrita water from the shankha unto your right palm, close your right hand into a loose fist and then gently shake your right hand over all pūjā items, allowing the abhimantrita water to slip through your fingers. Do not sprinkle the water over the Vighraha as the ritual is basically meant to sanctify the objects and materials used for the pūjā. Silently chant your isṭamantra while doing this. Retain the tulasī-dala for the next upachāra.

1 2) आत्मप्रोक्षणम् - Ātma-Prokṣhaṇam

ॐ अपवित्रः पवित्रो वा सर्वाऽवस्थां गतोऽपि वा ।

यः स्मरेत् पुण्डरीकाक्षं स बाह्याभ्यन्तरः शुचिः ॥

Om apavitraḥ pavitro vā sarvāṣvasthām gatoṣpi vā

Yaḥ smaret Puṇḍarīkākṣhaṁ sa bāhyābhyantaraḥ shuchih

Place the tulasī-dala in the Paleru (āchamana-plate)

1 3) आसनशुद्धिः - Āsana-shuddhiḥ

With your left hand, lift the front right corner of your āsana. With your right anāmikā, draw a triangle (▽) on the floor at that right corner with some gandha. The apex of the triangle should point in the direction behind you. Apply gandha in the centre of the triangle, offer akṣhatāḥ and petals. Place the tips of your right madhyamā and anāmikā in the triangle, touch your right elbow with your left hand and chant the following shloka:

(This ritual can be performed even when seated on an āsana on a chair.)

ॐ पृथ्वि त्वया धृता लोका देवि त्वं विष्णुना धृता ।
 त्वं च धारय मां देवि पवित्रं कुरु चासनम् ॥१॥

Om Pṛthvi tvayā dhṛtā lokā Devi tvaṁ Viṣṇunā dhṛtā

Sarvopachārārthe gandhākṣhata-puṣhpāṇi samarpayāmi

Do namaskāra.

1 4) दिग्बन्धः - Digbandhaḥ

Hold your hands in the trishūla mudrā slightly above forehead level. For the trishūla mudrā- join hands together with the fingers spread out. Fold the little fingers over the opposite knuckle. Cross the thumbs. The three centre fingers remain upright to indicate a three pointed spear. Rotate the wrists gently thrice in clockwise direction and then in a quick movement of the wrists, direct the mudrā forward- in front of you- while chanting the following shloka:

ॐ अपसर्पन्तु ते भूता ये भूता भूमिसंस्थिताः ।

ये भूता विघ्नकर्तारस्ते नश्यन्तु शिवाज्ञया ॥

Om apasarpantu te bhūtā ye bhūtā bhūmi saṁsthitāḥ

Ye bhūtā vighnakartāras-te nashyantu Shivājñayā

1 5) दीपकपूजनम् - Dipaka-pūjanam

Place gandha, akṣhatāḥ and flower petals at the base of the lamp. Do namaskāra and chant the shloka: (Do not use this flame to light dhoop, dīpa, āraṭi.)

दीपो ज्योतिः परब्रह्म दीपो ज्योतिर्जनार्दनः ।

दीपो हरतु मे ध्वान्तं संविद्दीप नमोऽस्तु ते ॥

16) भैरवनमस्कारः - Bhairava-namaskārah

Apply gandha and akshatāḥ to a flower and place it on the stool just in front of the lamp. Chant:

ॐ तीक्ष्णदंष्ट्र महाकाय कल्पान्तदहनोपम ।

भैरवाय नमस्तुभ्यमनुज्ञां दातुमर्हसि ॥

Om Tikshnadamshtra Mahākāya kalpāntadahanopama

7) स्नानम् – Snānam - Offering of water for a bath

Before the bath, the abhisheka, gently remove all flowers that have been offered to the Pādukā-s, and place them in the tīrtha-pātra. Wash your right hand with water from your āchamana-pātra. While chanting the mantra, pour the water gently upon the Pādukā-s from the snāna-pātra, which has the abhimantrita water. Try ensure that the force of the running water does not separate the Pādukā-s.

After the archanā is done, remove some of the bilva leaves / petals/flowers/akṣhatāḥ off the Pādukā-s so that the Pādukā-s are visible (ensure that the Pādukā-s are not shifted in the process), smell the petals/flowers and place them in the tīrtha-pātra. Wash your right hand.

1 2) धूपः – Dhūpam - Offering of incense

पञ्चकोशमयं दिव्यं दशाङ्गं गुग्गुलं गुरो ।

दग्ध्वा ज्ञानाग्निना नाथ धूपमाघ्रापयामि ते ॥

Pañcha-kosha-mayaṁ divyaṁ dashāṅgaṁ guggulaṁ Guro
Dagdhvā jñānāgninā Nātha dhūpam-āghrāpayāmi te

ॐ श्रीगुरुपादुकाभ्यो नमः । धूपम् आघ्रापयामि ॥

Om Shri Gurupādukābhyo namaḥ Dhūpam āghrāpayāmi

1 3) दीपः – Dipaḥ - Offering of the lamp

Light the ghee lamp and while ringing the bell with your left hand, wave the lamp in front of the Pādukā-s, in the curve mentioned in the previous upachāra, while reciting the shloka. The movements made are horizontal and not vertical.

वैराग्यतैलसम्पूर्णे भक्तिवर्तिसमन्विते ।

विवेकपूर्णपात्रेऽहं बोधदीपं प्रदर्शये ॥

Vairāgya-taila-sampūrṇe bhakti-varti-samanvite
Viveka-pūrṇa-pātreṢhaṁ bodhadīpaṁ pradarshaye

ॐ श्रीगुरुपादुकाभ्यो नमः । दीपं दर्शयामि ॥

Om Shrī Gurupādukābhyo namaḥ
Dīpaṁ darshayāmi

Put the flame out immediately with a wave of your hand. Do not blow it out.

14) नैवेद्यम् – Naivedyam - Offering of food

Say

हस्तौ प्रक्षाल्य नैवेद्यं पुरतः स्थाप्य गायत्र्या सम्प्रोक्ष्य तुलसीदलैः आच्छाद्य नैवेद्यम् ॥१॥

Hastau prakshālya, naivedyaṁ purataḥ sthāpya, gāyatrīyā
samprokshya, tulasīdalaḥ āchchādyā, naivedyam-1

Wash your hands with water from your personal āchamanam-pātra. With your right anāmikā, using gandha, draw a swastika on the floor in front of you to your right. Wash your hands once again.

Place the plate of food offerings, the naivedya-pātra, on the swastika. Take seven or eight tulasīdala-s in your right hand and wash them with a little abhimantrita water. Holding them in your right palm, along with a little abhimantrita water, make a dhenu-mudrā over the naivedya-pātra. The right hand remains below with the palm facing upwards, the left hand is positioned unto the right to create the dhenu mudrā with the thumbs pointing to your right). Move your hands once in the clockwise position over the naivedyam while saying the Guru Gāyatrī mantra:

तन्नो गुरुः प्रचोदयात् ॥२॥

Om Mahāpuruṣhāya vidmahe Paramahamsāya dhimahi
tanno Guruḥ prachodayāt-2

Pour some abhimantrita water into your right palm which contains the tulasidala-s. Close your right hand into a loose fist and sprinkle some of the water over the naivedyam allowing the water to slip in through your closed fingers.

Next, transfer the tulasidala-s into your left hand. Place one tulasī-dala on the naivedyam.

Now, pick a tulasī-dala from your left hand with the anāmikā, the madhyamā and the thumb of the right hand. Move it gently over the naivedyam in a circular motion and say the mantra

ॐ प्राणाय स्वाहा

Om prāṇāya svāhā

and then place the tulasidala on the Pādukā-s. Repeat the action with the following four mantra-s:

ॐ अपानाय स्वाहा

ॐ व्यानाय स्वाहा

ॐ उदानाय स्वाहा

ॐ समानाय स्वाहा

Om apānāya svāhā

Om vyānāya svāhā

Om udānāya svāhā

Om samānāya svāhā

Then sweep your right hand from the naivedyam towards the Pādukā-s in five gentle movements while saying the following

ॐ प्राण-अपान-व्यान-उदान-समानाः ॥३॥

Om prāṇa-apāna-vyāna-udāna-samānāḥ-3

When saying prāṇa, touch the tips of the little finger and the anāmikā with the thumb and move the hand over the naivedyam and towards the Pādukā-s.

When saying apāna, touch the tips of the anāmikā and the middle finger with the thumb and move the hand over the naivedyam and towards the Pādukā-s.

When saying vyāna, touch the tips of the middle and the index finger with the thumb and move the hand over the naivedyam and towards the Pādukā-s.

When saying udāna, touch the tips of the little finger and the index finger with the thumb and move the hand over the naivedyam and towards the Pādukā-s.

And finally, when saying samānāḥ, bring the tips of all fingers as well as the tip of the thumb together and move the hand over the naivedyam and towards the Pādukā-s.

Say

ॐ श्रीगुरुपादुकाभ्यो नमः । आचमनीयं समर्पयामि ॥

Om Shri Gurupādukābhyo namaḥ

Āchamanīyaṁ samarpayāmi

Pour a spoonful of abhimantrita water in the tīrtha-pātra.

Say पूर्वापोषणं समर्पयामि ।

Pūrvāpoṣhaṇaṁ samarpayāmi

Offer a few drops of abhimantrita water on the naivedyam.
Do namaskāra and recite the following mantra:

ॐ ब्रह्मनिष्ठाय नैवेद्यं ब्रह्माण्डाख्यं महौदनम् ।
समाधिपक्वमधुरं शिवाय गुरवेर्पितम् ॥४॥

Om Brahmanishthāya naivedyam

ॐ श्रीगुरुपादुकाभ्यो नमः ।
नैवेद्यं निवेदयामि नानाऋतुफलानि च समर्पयामि ॥

Om Shri Gurupādukābhyo namah
Naivedyam nivedayāmi nānā ṛtuphalāni cha samarpayāmi

Sit with your eyes closed for about half a minute.

Then ring the bell just once.

Say

आचमनीयं समर्पयामि Āchamanīyam samarpayāmi
(Pour a spoonful of abhimantrita water in the tirtha-pātra)

उत्तरापोषणं समर्पयामि Uttarāpoṣhaṇam samarpayāmi
(Pour a few drops of abhimantrita water on the naivedyam)

मुखप्रक्षालनं समर्पयामि Mukhaprakshālanam samarpayāmi
(Pour a spoonful of abhimantrita water in the tirtha-pātra)

हस्तप्रक्षालनं समर्पयामि Hastaprakshālanam samarpayāmi
(Pour a spoonful of abhimantrita water in the tirtha-pātra)

करोद्वर्तनार्थे चन्दनं समर्पयामि। Karodvartanārthe chandanam samarpayāmi

Apply gandha to both anāmikā-s. Cross both wrists with wrists facing upwards (right over left) and flick the gandha over the Pādukā-s with the thumbs in a single movement.

1 5) ताम्बूल-दक्षिणा - Tāmbūla-dakṣhiṇā - Offering of betel leaf, areca nut and money.

Pour a spoonful of water on the betel leaf, the supāri (areca nut) and dakṣhiṇā after chanting:

जीवब्रह्मैक्यविज्ञान-तृप्ताय गुरुमूर्तये ।

जीवन्मुक्तिसुखाकारं ताम्बूलं प्रतिगृह्यताम् ॥

Jīva-brahmaikya-vijñāna-tr̥ptāya Guru-mūrtaye
Jīvanmukti-sukhākāraṁ tāmbūlaṁ pratigr̥hyatām

ॐ श्रीगुरुपादुकाभ्यो नमः । सदक्षिणा-ताम्बूलं समर्पयामि ॥

Om Shri Gurupādukābhyo namaḥ
Sadakṣhiṇā-tāmbūlaṁ samarpayāmi

1 6) नीराजनम् - Nirājanam - Waving of lights

कर्पूरगौरं करुणावतारं संसारसारं भुजगेन्द्रहारम् ।

सदा वसन्तं हृदयारविन्दे भवं भवानीसहितं नमामि ॥१॥

Karpūra-gauram Karuṇāvatāram Samsāra-sāram
 Bhujagendra-hāram
 Sadā Vasantaṁ hṛdayāravinde Bhavaṁ
 Bhavānī-sahitaṁ namāmi-1

त्वमेव माता च पिता त्वमेव त्वमेव बन्धुश्च सखा त्वमेव ।
 त्वमेव विद्या द्रविणं त्वमेव त्वमेव सर्वं मम देव देव ॥२॥
 Tvameva mātā cha pitā tvameva tvameva
 bandhushcha sakhā tvameva
 Tvameva vidyā draviṇaṁ tvameva tvameva
 sarvaṁ mama Deva Deva-2

नीराजनं निर्मलदीप्तिमद्भिर्-दीपाङ्कुरैरुज्ज्वलमुच्छ्रितैश्च ।
 घण्टानिनादेन समर्पयामि मृत्युञ्जयाय गुरुनायकाय ॥३॥

Nīrājanaṁ nirmala-diptimadbhirdipāṅkurairujjvalam-uchchritaishcha
 Ghaṇṭā-ninādena samarpayāmi
 Mr̥tyuñjayāya Gurunāyakāya-3

After the ārati is over, place the bell back in its position. Offer the ārati to the bell once (slight circular movement of hand) Then transferring the ārati to your left hand, hold the shankha or spoon of water in the right hand and do the jalārati by raising and lowering it once before the Pādūkā-s. Pour the water from the shankha/spoon in the tīrtha-pātra.

Say

ॐ श्रीगुरुपादुकाभ्यो नमः ।

नीराजनं दर्शयामि तदन्ते जलारार्तिकं समर्पयामि ॥

Om Shrī Gurupādūkābhyo namaḥ

Nīrājanaṁ darshayāmi tadante jalārārtikaṁ samarpayāmi

Sweep the right hand from the ārati towards the Pādukā-s and say देवाभिवन्दनम्। Devābhivandanam

Then sweep the hand from the ārati and towards yourself and say आत्माभिवन्दनम् ॥ Ātmābhivandanam

Wash your hand with water taken from your personal āchamana-pātra.

1 7) मन्त्रपुष्पाञ्जलिः – Mantrapuṣhpāñjaliḥ - Offering of flowers

Place flowers upon the Pādukā-s with cupped hands after chanting:

नानासुगन्धपुष्पाणि यथा कालोद्भवानि च ।

पुष्पाञ्जलिं मया दत्तं गृहाण गुरुनायक ॥

Nānā-sugandha-puṣhpāṇi yathā kālobbhavāni cha

Say

हस्तौ प्रक्षाल्य नैवेद्यं पुरतः स्थाप्य गायत्र्या सम्प्रोक्ष्य तुलसीदलैः
आच्छाद्य नैवेद्यम् ॥१॥

Hastau prakṣhālyā, naivedyaṁ purataḥ sthāpya, gāyatrīyā
samprokshya, tulasīdalaiḥ āchchādyā, naivedyam-1

Wash your hands with water from your personal āchamanam-pātra. With your right anāmikā, using gandha, draw a swastika on the floor in front of you to your right. Wash your hands once again.

Place the plate of food offerings, the naivedya-pātra, on the swastika. Take seven or eight tulasīdala-s in your right hand and wash them with a little abhimantrita water. Holding them in your right palm, along with a little abhimantrita water, make a dhenu-mudrā over the naivedya-pātra. (The right hand remains below with the palm facing upwards, the left hand is positioned unto the right to create the dhenu mudrā with the thumbs pointing to your right). Move your hands once in the clockwise position over the naivedyam while saying the Rudra Gāyatri mantra:

ॐ तत्पुरुषाय विद्महे महादेवाय धीमहि तन्नो रुद्रः प्रचोदयात् ॥२॥

Om Tatpurushāya vidmahe Mahādevāya dhīmahī tanno Rudrah prachodayāt-2

Pour some abhimantrita water into your right palm which contains the tulasīdala-s. Close your right hand into a loose fist and sprinkle some of the water over the naivedyam allowing the water to slip in through your closed fingers.

Next, transfer the tulasīdala-s into your left hand. Place one tulasī-dala on the naivedyam.

Now, pick a tulasī-dala from your left hand with the anāmikā, the madhyamā and the thumb of the right hand. Move it gently over the naivedyam in a circular motion and say the mantra

ॐ प्राणाय स्वाहा

Om prāṇāya svāhā,

and then place the tulasī-dala on the Vighraha. Repeat the action with the following four mantra-s:

ॐ अपानाय स्वाहा

ॐ व्यानाय स्वाहा

ॐ उदानाय स्वाहा

ॐ समानाय स्वाहा

Om apānāya svāhā

Om vyānāya svāhā

Om udānāya svāhā

Om samānāya svāhā

Then sweep your right hand from the naivedyam towards the Vighraha in five gentle movements while saying the following

ॐ प्राण-अपान-व्यान-उदान-समानाः ॥३॥

Om prāṇa-apāna-vyāna-udāna-samānāḥ-3

When saying prāṇa, touch the tips of the little finger and the anāmikā with the thumb and move the hand over the naivedyam and towards the Vighraha.

When saying apāna, touch the tips of the anāmikā and the middle finger with the thumb and move the hand over the naivedyam and towards the Vighraha.

When saying vyāna, touch the tips of the middle finger and the index finger with the thumb and move the hand over the naivedyam and towards the Vighraha.

When saying udāna, touch the tips of the little finger and the index finger with the thumb and move the hand over the naivedyam and towards the Vighraha.

And finally, when saying samānāḥ, bring the tips of all fingers as well as the tip of the thumb together and move the hand over the naivedyam and towards the Vighraha.

After the archanā is done, shift some of the kuṅkuma off the Vighraha so that the Vighraha is visible (ensure that the Vighraha is not shifted in the process). Wash your hands with water from your personal āchamana-pātra.

1 5) धूपः – Dhūpaḥ - Offering of incense

धूपं ददामि ते रम्यं गुग्गुलागरुमिश्रितम् ।
गृहाणेदं महादेवि भक्तानामिष्टदायिनि ॥

Dhūpaṁ dadāmi te ramaṁ guggulāgaru-mishritam
Gṛhāṇedaṁ Mahādevi Bhaktānāmiṣṭadāyini

ॐ श्रीमात्रे नमः । धूपम् आघ्रापयामि ॥

Om Shri Mātre namaḥ
Dhūpaṁ āghrāpayāmi

1 6) दीपः – Dipah - Offering of the lamp

Light the ghee lamp and while ringing the bell with your left hand, wave the lamp in front of the Vighraha in the curve mentioned in the previous upachāra, while reciting the shloka. The movements are horizontal and not vertical.

आज्यवर्तियुतं दीपं नगेन्द्रकुलदीपिके ।
अम्ब पश्य मया दत्तम् अन्तर्ध्वान्तापहारिणि ॥

Ājyavartiyutam dipam Nagendrakuladipike
Amba pashya mayā dattam Antardhvāntāpaharini

ॐ श्रीमात्रे नमः । दीपं दर्शयामि ॥

Om Shri Mātre namaḥ Dipam darshayāmi

Put the flame out immediately with a wave of the hand. Do not blow it out.

1 7) नैवेद्यम् – Naivedyam - Offering of food

Say हस्तौ प्रक्षाल्य नैवेद्यं पुरतः स्थाप्य गायत्र्या सम्प्रोक्ष्य तुलसीदलैः
आच्छाद्य नैवेद्यम् ॥१॥

Hastau prakshālya, naivedyam purataḥ sthāpya, gāatryā
samprokshya, tulasīdalaiḥ āchchādyā, naivedyam-1

Wash your hands with water from your personal āchamana-pātra. With your right anāmikā, using gandha, draw a swastika on the floor in front of you to your right. Wash your hands once again.

Place the plate of food offerings, the naivedya-pātra, on the swastika. Take seven or eight tulasīdala-s in your right hand and wash them with a little abhimantrita water. Holding them in your right palm, along with a little abhimantrita water, make a dhenu-mudrā over the naivedya-pātra. (The right hand remains below with the palm facing upwards, the left hand is positioned unto the right to create the dhenu mudrā with the thumbs pointing to your right). Move your hands once in the clockwise position over the naivedyam while saying the Devi Gāyatrī mantra:

दुर्गिः प्रचोदयात् ॥२॥

Om Kātyāyanāya vidmahe Kanyākumāri dhīmahi tanno
Durgih prachodayāt-2

Pour some abhimantrita water into your right palm which contains the tulasīdala-s. Close your right hand into a loose fist and sprinkle some of the water over the naivedyam allowing the water to slip in through your closed fingers.

Next, transfer the tulasīdala-s into your left hand. Place one tulasī-dala on the naivedyam.

Now, pick a tulasī-dala from your left hand with the anāmikā, the madhyamā and the thumb of the right hand. Move it gently over the naivedyam in a circular motion and say the mantra

ॐ प्राणाय स्वाहा

Om prāṇāya svāhā

and then place the tulasī-dala on the Vighraha. Repeat the action with the following four mantra-s:

ॐ अपानाय स्वाहा

ॐ व्यानाय स्वाहा

ॐ उदानाय स्वाहा

ॐ समानाय स्वाहा

Om apānāya svāhā

Om vyānāya svāhā

Om udānāya svāhā

Om samānāya svāhā

Then sweep your right hand from the naivedyam towards the Vighraha in five gentle movements while saying the following

ॐ प्राण-अपान-व्यान-उदान-समानाः ॥३॥

Om prāṇa-apāna-vyāna-udāna-samānāḥ-3

When saying prāṇa, touch the tips of the little finger and the anāmikā with the thumb and move the hand over the naivedyam and towards the Vighraha.

When saying apāna, touch the tips of the anāmikā and the middle finger with the thumb and move the hand over the naivedyam and towards the Vighraha.

When saying vyāna, touch the tips of the middle finger and the index finger with the thumb and move the hand over the naivedyam and towards the Vighraha.

When saying udāna, touch the tips of the little finger and the index finger with the thumb and move the hand over the naivedyam and towards the Vighraha.

And finally, when saying samānāh, bring the tips of all fingers as well as the tip of the thumb together and move the hand over the naivedyam and towards the Vighraha.

Say ॐ श्रीमात्रे नमः । आचमनीयं समर्पयामि ॥

Om Shri Mātre namaḥ
Āchamaniyaṁ samarpayāmi

Pour a spoonful of water in the tīrtha-pātra.

Say पूर्वापोषणं समर्पयामि ।

Pūrvāpoṣhaṇaṁ samarpayāmi

Pour a few drops of water on the naivedyam.
Do namaskāra and recite the following mantra:

नानाविधानि भक्ष्याणि व्यञ्जनानि हरप्रिये ।
यथेष्टं भुङ्क्त्व नैवेद्यं षड्रसं च चतुर्विधम् ॥४॥

Nānāvīdhāni bhakshyāṇi vyañjanāni Harapriye
Yatheshṭam bhukṣhva naivedyaṁ
shadrasaṁ cha chaturvidham-4

ॐ श्रीमात्रे नमः । नैवेद्यं निवेदयामि नानाऋतुफलानि च समर्पयामि ॥

Om Shri Mātre namaḥ
Naivedyaṁ nivedayāmi Nānā ṛtuphalāni cha samarpayāmi

Sit with your eyes closed for about half a minute.

आचमनीयं समर्पयामि Āchamanīyaṃ samarpayāmi

(Pour a spoonful of abhimantrita water in the tīrtha-pātra)

उत्तरापोषणं समर्पयामि Uttarāpoṣhaṇaṃ samarpayāmi

(Pour a few drops of abhimantrita water on the naivedyam)

मुखप्रक्षालनं समर्पयामि Mukhaprakṣhālanāṃ samarpayāmi

(Pour a spoonful of abhimantrita water in the tīrtha-pātra)

हस्तप्रक्षालनं समर्पयामि Hastaprakṣhālanāṃ samarpayāmi

(Pour a spoonful of abhimantrita water in the tīrtha-pātra)

करोद्वर्तनार्थे चन्दनं समर्पयामि। Karodvartanārthe chandanāṃ samarpayāmi

Apply gandha to both anāmikā-s. Cross both wrists with wrists facing upwards (right over left) and flick the gandha over the Vighraha with the thumbs in a single movement.

18) ताम्बूलम् – Tāmbūlam - Offering of betel leaf and areca nut

Pour a spoonful of abhimantrita water on the betel leaf and the supārī (areca nut) after chanting:

ताम्बूलं-मुक्तिकाचूर्ण-कर्पूरादि-समन्वितम् ।

जिह्वा-जाड्योच्छेदकरं त्रिपुरे प्रतिगृह्यताम् ॥

Tāmbūlaṃ-muktikāchūrṇa-karpūrādi-samanvitam
Jivhā-jādyochchedakaraṃ Tripure pratigr̥hyatām

ॐ श्रीमात्रे नमः । मुखशुद्ध्यर्थं ताम्बूलं समर्पयामि ॥

Om Shri Mātre namaḥ

Mukhashuddhyartham tāmbūlaṃ samarpayāmi

19) दक्षिणा - Dakṣhiṇā- Offering of money to the Goddess

Pour a spoonful of water on the dakṣhiṇā after chanting:

पूजापूर्णत्वसिद्धार्थं पूर्णे पूर्णफलप्रदे ।
हेमरत्नमयीं द्रव्य-दक्षिणां स्वीकुरुष्व मे ॥

Pūjā-pūrṇatva-siddhyartham Pūrṇe Pūrṇa-phala-prade
Hema-ratna-mayīm dravya-dakṣhiṇām svikuruṣhva me

ॐ श्रीमात्रे नमः । हिरण्यगर्भदक्षिणां समर्पयामि ॥

Om Shri Mātre namaḥ hiraṇya-garbha-dakṣhiṇām samarpayāmi

20) नीराजनम् - Nirājanam - Waving of lights

कर्पूरगौरं करुणावतारं संसारसारं भुजगेन्द्रहारम् ।
सदा वसन्तं हृदयारविन्दे भवं भवानीसहितं नमामि ॥१॥

Karpūra-gauram Karuṇāvatāram Saṁsāra-sāram
Bhujagendra-hāram

Sadā Vasantam hṛdayāravinde Bhavam

Bhavānī-sahitam namāmi-1

त्वमेव माता च पिता त्वमेव त्वमेव बन्धुश्च सखा त्वमेव ।
त्वमेव विद्या द्रविणं त्वमेव त्वमेव सर्वं मम देव देव ॥२॥

Say

ॐ श्री मात्रे नमः। नीराजनं दर्शयामि तदन्ते जलारार्तिकं समर्पयामि॥

Om Shri Mātre namaḥ

Nirājanam darshayāmi tadante jalārārtikam samarpayāmi

Sweep the right hand from the ārati towards the Vighraha and say देवाभिवन्दनम्। Devābhivandanam

Then sweep the hand from the ārati and towards yourself and say आत्माभिवन्दनम् ॥ Ātmābhivandanam

Wash your hand with water taken from your personal āchamana-pātra.

2 1) मन्त्रपुष्पाञ्जलिः - Mantrapushpāñjaliḥ - Offering of flowers

Place flowers upon the Vighraha with cupped hands after chanting:

पुष्पाञ्जलिं गृहाणेमं परब्रह्मस्वरूपिणि ।

भक्त्या समर्पितं देवि प्रसन्ना भव सर्वदा ॥

Pushpāñjalim grhāṇemam Parabrahmasvarūpiṇi

Bhaktiyā samarpitam Devī prasannā bhava sarvadā

ॐ श्रीमात्रे नमः । मन्त्रपुष्पाञ्जलिं समर्पयामि ॥

Om Shri Mātre namaḥ

Mantrapushpāñjalim samarpayāmi

2 2) प्रदक्षिणा - Pradakṣhiṇā - Circumambulation

Join hands in namaskāra-mudrā at chest level. Turn wrists 3 times clockwise while chanting:

सर्वमङ्गललाभाय सर्वपापनिवृत्तये ।

प्रदक्षिणां करोम्यम्ब प्रसीद परमेश्वरि ॥

The Worship of Shiva from Within

1. O Lord, O Ocean of Compassion!
Of all beings You who Master be!
Please accept these, which in my heart
Have been visualized for You by me -
A throne bedecked with several gems;
A bath with glacial waters cold;
Divine cloth decorated well -
With different gems within its fold;
Sandalwood paste with the fragrant touch
Of the musk that from the deer does spring;
Jasmine, Champaka and Bilva-leaves,
All woven in this flower-string;
And incense and a lit lamp too -
Accept these visualized, in my heart, for You!
 2. Its sections studded with nine kinds of gems -
In a vessel made of pure gold,
I place ghee, milk-pudding and five kinds of fare
Of milk and curd, in that vessel's hold,
A banana fruit and sweetened drink;
Vegetables of many a variety;
And as brilliant as a camphor piece -
Water flavoured most delicately;
Betel leaf too! All these by me
Have been created by my thought,
And it is with much devotion that These to my mind have been brought -
O Powerful Lord! O Almighty!
Accept these visualized by me!

Shambho tavārādhanam-4

3. An umbrella and two Yak-hair fans,
 A clean mirror, utterly stain free!
 From stringed instrument and from drum,
 From mṛdaṅga and horn - sweet melody!
 Song and dance and obeisance,
 Where eight parts of body on ground fall
 And several different songs of praise-
 By me, has been offered this all-
 By the power of my very thought,
 All this as homage unto You,
 As an offering of much reverence
 Which from my mind does ensue-
 O All-pervading, Supreme One,
 Accept my worship of You done!
4. My soul is You and my intellect
 Is the Mountain-born One - Pārvatī,
 My life breaths are Your companions,
 And my body - Your residence does be,
 My capacity to enjoy sense-objects is
 My adulation of You, my adoration!
 And my sleep is the state of Samādhi-
 Deep and wholesome meditation!
 Circumambulations are the movements which
 My feet perform whenever I walk,
 And they are but Your songs of praise-
 All words that I ever talk!
 O Shambho, whatever act I do,
 All is but worship of You!

5. Misdeeds performed by hands or feet,
Or those by speech or body done,
Or those arising from actions performed
Or ear, eye, mind-born transgression,
Whether done knowingly or not,
All these acts, please exonerate,
Hail to You, O Shambho,
O Ocean of Compassion, Lord most Great!
Hail to You, O Shambho,
O Ocean of Compassion, Lord most Great!

Thus concludes 'The Worship of Shiva from Within', composed by Shrimat Shaṅkarāchārya.

Appendix 1

Translation of Pūjā-Pūrvāṅga-Shloka-s.

3) स्वस्तिवाचनम् – Svastivāchanam

1. May Indra the One with mighty speed,
Upon us may He prosperity confer!
May the Sun grant us well-being,
The Sun, the nourisher, the universe-knower!
May Tārks̥hya-Arīṣṭanemi, the speedy horse,
May He grant us immense success,
And may Bṛhaspati, the teacher of the Gods,
Grant us fortune and auspiciousness.

2. May the mind enjoy vigour from the offering
May Bṛhaspati make this ritual safe and secure
May he make this ritual well organised
May all the Gods stay delighted here.
Om, (O Deity) may You be established well,
(O Deity,) may You here firmly dwell!

3. This is the sacrifice known as Establishment (foundation). Wherever people perform the sacrifice with this, everything gets well established.

4) प्रार्थना – Prārthanā

1. The handsome One, the one-tusked One,
Dark, with ears as those to the elephant belong,
Pot-bellied and most feared by all
Obstacle destroyer, guiding us specially along,

2. Identified by grey, Leader of follower-groups,
Moon on forehead, of elephant face-
These twelve names, he who should read,
Or upon his ears their sound should place,

 3. At learning's beginning, at nuptial time,
Or when entering or leaving too,
During battle, or when in difficulty,
Towards him no trouble does ever ensue.

 4. For the quelling of all obstacles, one should Meditate upon the Lord clad in white,
Of the colour of the moon, Four-armed and
His face with contentment made bright.

 5. He who is worshipped by Gods and demons,
For fulfilling desires and for successes to be won,
To that Destroyer of obstacles and sole Leader of
The follower-teams, our salutation!

 6. O You, of curved trunk, of a body large,
Of million-sun-radiance, shining brightly
O Lord, for ever, all my works, and at all times,
I beseech that they are obstacle free!

 7. O Giver of Auspiciousness, Auspiciousness personified!
O Refuge of all, O Three-eyed One!
O Purity incarnate, enabler of all four ends.
O Fair One, Nārāyaṇī, to You, my salutation!

8. Your pair of feet which I invoke,
 O Lord of the Goddess of Prosperity,
 That alone is union with auspiciousness,
 That alone is the day which auspicious does be,
 That alone is the power of the stars and moon,
 Of knowledge supreme and of destiny!
9. Benefits are theirs! Victory is theirs!
 Can defeat ever be theirs then,
 In whose heart is the lotus-blue One
 The Dark-complexioned, Agitator* of men?
So called because He creates a restlessness in men with regard to the material world.*
10. Wherever is Kṛṣṇa, the Lord of Yoga,
 And wherever Pārtha, the bow-wielder be,
 There is unfailing fortune, victory, prosperity and just policy,
 Such is my conviction, firm and steady!
11. Having propitiated all these first,
 Gaṇapati, Guru and the Trinity-
 Brahma, Viṣṇu, Shiva- Saraswati as well,
 One should then begin an auspicious activity.
12. Salutations at the Lotus Feet of the Divine Guru,
 To the Great Leader of the gaṇa-s, salutation!
 Salutations to Umā and the Great Lord, Shiva,
 To Lakṣmī and Nārāyaṇa, salutation!
 Salutations to the Word and the Golden-Seed,
 To Shachī and Purandara, salutation!

Salutations to the dearest form of the Lord,
 To the family-Deity, salutation!
 Salutations to the village-Deity and
 To the region-Deity, salutation!
 Salutations to the Deity of the site and the house,
 To the presiding Deities of this rite, salutation!
 Salutations to all Gods, every divinity,
 Salutations to all the great souls there be!

5) सङ्कल्पः – Saṅkalpaḥ

The period which is enumerated below, which has come into being by the Order of the Great Puruṣha, who is Bhagavān Viṣṇu, today, in the second half of Shri Bramhan, in the Kalpa by the name Shvetavarāha, in the Manvantara named Vaivasvata, within which this is the 28th Kaliyuga, within that-in the first leg, in the island called Jambūdvīpa, in which Bhāratavarsha and Bharatakhaṇḍa are situated, within that in the region of Āryāvarta, is located the Daṇḍakāraṇya/ Parashurāma (as appropriate) kṣhetra, inplace (name of city/town/village) in Saṁvatsara(name of the year in the Hindu calendar), Uttara/Dakṣhiṇa ayane, in..... season, in month, in bright/dark fortnight, on tithi, and onday of the week, when all the planets are positioned in their appropriate places, I (Name), born in Gotra, perform this worship for propitiating Guru/Shiva/Devī with whatever understanding I possess of the method of performing the worship, with whatever capacity I possess and with whatever rituals that I can perform.

6) घण्टापूजनम् – Ghaṅṭā-pūjanam

To facilitate the arrival of all the Gods,
To ensure the demons' departure as well,
The bell must be rung and then one should
Perform the worship of the bell.

Om Salutations to the Lord residing in the bell. I offer sandalwood paste, unbroken grains of raw rice and flowers to symbolize the carrying out of the various elements that constitute an act of worship.

7) वरुणध्यानम् – Varuṇa-dhyānam

Salutations to the One of the radiance of crystal,
Bearing a white wreath, the Auspicious One,
Noose in hand, a large fish for a seat,
To the Lord of the waters, many a salutation!

Om I meditate on Varuṇa, invoke and worship Him.

8) कलशपूजनम् – Kalasha-pūjanam

1. For the Lord's worship, may all those come,
Which cause the destruction of any difficulty-
The oceans, the rivers, sacred-spot-waters,
And the water-givers that thunder resonantly!

2. At the water-jar's mouth is the God Vishnu,
At its neck does the terrifying Rudra abide,
At its base is Brahmā and it must be recalled
That at its mid-section, the Mothers reside.

 3. In its belly are all the oceans and
The Mother Earth with her seven islands, as well,
The Ṛg, Yajur, Sāma and Atharva Veda-s
With their subdivisions, in the water-jar dwell.

 4. In this water-jar I invoke the Lord of the waters,
With all His limbs, with His family,
With all His weapons and all His powers,
I worship them all most reverently.

 5. O Gaṅgā, Yamunā, Godāvarī, Saraswatī
O Narmadā, Sindhu, O Kāverī
Within the precincts of these waters,
May your divine presence be!

 6. Salutations to Ṛgveda in the direction of the east,
Salutations to Yajurveda in the direction of the south
Salutations to Sāmaveda in the direction of the west,
Salutations to Atharvaṇaveda in the direction of the north.
Salutations to the Lord of the waters,
Varuṇa, within the kalasha.

9) कलशप्रार्थना – Kalasha-prārthanā

O, You who are of the waters invoked,
It is because of Your grace, that this worship I do!
Grace it with Your presence then, my Lord,
And may You be pleased for evermore too!

Be pleased.

Become the Giver of boons.

By this act of worship, may Varuṇa and the other Gods who are invoked be pleased- this is not just for my fulfillment alone.

10) शङ्खपूजनम् – Shaṅkha-pūjanam

Om

Peace! Salutations to Pāñchajanya!

Salutations to the Deity of the conch. I offer sandalwood paste, unbroken grains of raw rice and flowers to symbolize the carrying out of the various elements that constitute an act of worship and pay my respects.

12) आत्मप्रोक्षणम् – Ātma-prokṣhaṇam

Om

Whether one is impure or one is pure,
In whichever state he may abide,
He who remembers the Lotus-eyed One,
Is purified outside and inside.

1 3) आसनशुद्धिः - Āsana-shuddhiḥ

1. All mankind is held by you, O Earth!
By Vishnu held, O You who gleam!
And You must support me, O Radiant Goddess,
Make my seat pure and clean!
2. Salutations to the Power that supports,
To the Tortoise-seat, salutation!
Salutations to the serpent seat and untainted seat,
To the seat of the Self, salutation!

1 4) दिग्बन्धः - Digbandhaḥ

May all those beings begone from here,
Those that live upon the earth,
By Shiva's order may they all be destroyed,
Those that to obstacles give birth.

1 5) दीपकपूजनम् - Dipaka-pūjanam

The lamp, the light, is the Brahman Supreme,
The agitator of men, this illumination!
May the lamp drive away this darkness mine,
To You, Lamp of Consciousness, salutation!

1 6) भैरवनमस्कारः - Bhairava-namaskāraḥ

O Sharp-fanged, O Large-bodied One,
To the Fire of Dissolution do You similar be!
To You O Bhairava, salutations,
To give Your permission here, would be worthy!

Appendix 2

Translation of Shri Guru-Pūjana-Shloka-s

1) ध्यानम् – Dhyānam

1. In the centre of my two-petalled lotus -
As displaying the hand-gesture of Awareness,
Having assumed a body - Shiva's Himself
Upon spiritual seekers His Grace to bless
Radiant with the Veda-s and Vedānta,
The sun's very image - inspiring intuition,
Obliterating the dark and stilling anguish -
Upon such a Guru I reflect with adoration!

2. In the centre - the core of one's heart-lotus,
As seated on a throne - reigning as Image Divine!
Thus should one meditate upon one's Guru
Who, akin to the radiant full moon, does shine -
That Guru Who does upon one confer,
The truth that in Sat - existence - does be,
The knowledge that exists in the Shāstra-s as well
And the boons one desires intensely.

2) आवाहनम् – Āvāhanam

He who causes one to explore the nature of one's Self Salutations to my Divine Guru!
He who causes one to ponder upon Pure Light-Shiva,
Salutations to my Guru's Guru too!
My salutations to His Guru as well -
In the Bliss of His Own Self immersed is He!
Bright with the radiance of Divine Splendour,
Not bound - from all caged limitations free!

3) आसनम् - Āsanam

For my Guru who is established in every Self,
 A Witness to all and everything thus -
 I visualize a seat at the crest of my head -
 Within the thousand-petalled lotus.

4) पाद्यम् - Pādyam

Water flowing at that pilgrimage spot -
 Where surrendered souls find sanctuary,
 Where every duty is renounced -
 Therefore water of exceptional quality -
 Is offered here, worthy of washing the Feet
 Of He - dwelling in all and Himself Home
 To all that do not move and to Those that all around do roam.

5) अर्घ्यम् - Arghyam

'Devotion to One and not to another',
 Adorned and studded with the quality
 Of humility - a willingness to be led -
 That when as water envisioned be,
 That water qualifies as worthy then
 To upon the Hands of the Master run -
 Master of that incomparable State,
 Where exists the Absolute Only One.

6) आचमनम् - Āchamanam

Deeds that manifest as thoughts of the mind,
 As speech and as acts by my body too,
 Those I envision as water most pure
 And that water has been offered to You.
 O One who pervades the entire universe,
 O Sovereign of all Guru-s there be -
 Having accepted the water, partake of it
 As āchamanam - sips of water three!

7) स्नानम् - Snānam

This water that is with the Shāstra-s endowed,
 Garnered from the river of conviction,
 May this, as bath-waters, be accepted by You,
 O You who are free from contamination!

8) वस्त्रम् - Vastram

You have cloaked Yourself in Illusion's screen,
 And thus hidden Yourself, O Radiant One!
 Please accept, O Guide who shows the way,
 These two fabrics - my faith and devotion!

9) चन्दन-अक्षताः - Chandana-akshatāḥ

1. We propitiate Tryambaka, the Three-eyed-One,
 The Lord Shiva Himself, so fragrant is He!
 He enhances health, increases wealth,
 From death's bonds, may He make us free-
 Just as a ripe cucumber falls off its vine!
 And may He not deny us immortality!

2. Richly endowed with the fragrance of Truth
That the Five Great Edicts state,
This sandalwood paste that is to be daubed,
Does every affliction eradicate.
May this paste be accepted by You,
O, You who amongst Guru-s is great!

1 0) पुष्पम् – Pushpam

Born in the forest of the Turiya-state,
Are these flowers into a garland strung,
Full of love - Your heart to attract -
And with stars and all upon it hung!
Accept these flowers in such array,
O Guru, You who lead the way!

1 1) बिल्वपत्रम् – Bilvapatram

Three-leaved and of tri-quality-form,
Three-eyed and of weapons three -
A single Bilva as homage to Shiva -
Destroys all sins amassed in lives three!

1 2) धूपम् – Dhūpam

Of five body-sheaths and ten organs-
Five each of perception and action,
This, my body, O Guru,
I, as incense, do envision.
Having burnt it with Wisdom's fire -
O Master, I now offer You
The fragrance that results therefrom,
And, like the incense, divine too.

1 3) दीपः – Dipah

I display the lamp of Wisdom now,
The container - my complete discernment,
Replete with the oil of dispassion and
With the wick of my devoted commitment.

1 4) नैवेद्यम् – Naivedyam

1. Having cleansed my hands and having placed this food before (the Deity), having sprinkled upon it water sanctified by the Gāyatri, having concealed it with tulasī leaves - this then is the naivedyam.
2. We know You to be the Great Latent Energy
As the Supreme Swan we meditate upon You!
We call upon the Guru to inspire us,
To progress in our wisdom and meditation too!
3. With the mantra Svāhā may this food nourish
The airs that are considered to vital be -
Prāṇa, Apāna, Vyāna, Udāna,
And Samāna, each which sustains the body.
4. To the Guru established in Brahman Itself,
To Shiva Himself - the Auspicious One,
This food, a delicacy of a kind most great,
Is offered to Him as naivedyam.
This food cooked well in the heat which arises
In the deep meditative state of Samādhi,

From which it is grasped that the universe,
Does not from oneself separate be -
This understanding of the universe,
Which as food I now envision
Is offered to the Guru, Brahman Itself,
To Shiva Himself - the Auspicious One.

1 5) ताम्बूल-दक्षिणा - Tāmbūla-dakṣhiṇā

With the knowledge that soul and Brahman are One,
That Guru who is content completely,
To Him is offered this betel leaf,
In a manner most reverently.
This leaf symbolizes the Guru's ways -
Transacting with the world though knowing well -
That the soul and Absolute - Jiva and Brahman
Do, in Truth, as One dwell.

1 6) नीराजनम् - Nirājanam

1. I salute the One who is as camphor fair,
Compassion's very embodiment!
I salute the Essence of the universe,
Whose necklace is the king-serpent!
To the One who, in my heart-lotus,
Resides with Bhavānī eternally,
To the One who is Existence Himself,
I pray! To Him my homage be!

2. You alone are my mother, You alone my father,
You alone are my relative, my friend - You alone!
You alone are knowledge, wealth alone You are!
You alone are all! O my Lord, my Lord own!

 3. This light of pure brilliance, with flames shooting high,
Along with the resonance of the bell, I offer completely-
To the One who overcomes death and to Him
Who amongst all Guru-s, the leader does be!

1 7) मन्त्रपुष्पाञ्जलिः – Mantrapushpāñjaliḥ

Season-fresh, newly bloomed flowers,
Of varied fragrances I bring -
Nestled softly in my cupped hands,
O Foremost Guru, accept my offering!

1 8) प्रदक्षिणा – Pradakshinā

In whose Vision of Awareness and around whom Crores of universes, step after step, stride -
Around Him, this circumambulation,
Who, as Master of Gurus, does abide!

1 9) नमस्कार-प्रार्थना-स्तुतिः –

Namaskāra-prārthanā-stutiḥ

1. He who pervades the entire world-sphere,
In the mobile and non-moving He resides too!
He who directs one to the Absolute-'That-state'
Salutations to that Divine Guru!

2. Blinded by the darkness that ignorance casts,
Whose eyes are opened by which Divine Guru -
With the fine stick of wisdom-collyrium,
Towards Him salutations do ensue!

 3. The Guru is Brahmā, the Guru is Viṣṇu,
The Guru is the Lord Maheshvara too,
The Guru alone is the Supreme Brahman,
Salutations to such a Shri-Guru!

 4. I bow down to Bhagavatpāda - to Shaṅkarāchārya,
For all worlds, as Auspiciousness, does He abide!
In that Compassionate Abode do the Veda-s and Smṛti-s and Purāṇa-s too reside!

 5. I salute Shaṅkarāchārya - Shiva incarnate
And Veda Vyāsa who Viṣṇu Himself does be - Those revered Creators of the Bhāṣhya-s and Brahma-sūtra-s, I salute repeatedly.

 6. As the separate forms of Lord, Guru and Self
He who appears as the Divided One.
To that Form which pervades all like space,
To Dakṣiṇāmūrti, our salutation!

20) विशेषार्घ्यम् – Visheshārgyam

To the Bliss of Brahman conferring Supreme Joy,
To the Absolute, that Image in Whom Wisdom does lie,
To the One beyond opposites; expansive as space,
To That Goal that 'You are That' and the rest imply.

To the One, Eternal, Pure and Constant,
 To the One Who is Witness of the intellect's functions,
 To the One beyond emotions, devoid of three guṇa-s,
 To that Sadguru, my reverent salutations.

2 1) प्रार्थनापूर्वकं क्षमापनम् - Prārthanāpūrvakam kshamāpanam

A thousand transgressions are performed by me,
 Both during the day and at night too!
 'He is a servant'- having considered me thus,
 Please forgive me, O Eminent Guru!

2 2) समर्पणम् - Samarpaṇam

1. O Lord of Gods, O Guru, O Master!
 O Guide! O Soul-leader Divine!
 Protect me, O Ocean of Compassion,
 Infuse a wholeness to this worship of mine!
2. May the Divine Guru be pleased with this pūjā offered by me!
 May all of this be offered to Brahman.
3. Thou, who art Guard to the deepest secret,
 Accept this japa which has been done by me,
 By Your Grace, O Goddess Most Great,
 May my fulfillment come to be!

4. Thou, who art Guard to the deepest secret,
Accept this japa which has been done by me,
By Your Grace, O God Most Great,
May my fulfillment come to be!

 5. In that location which belongs to the Supreme-
Your own place, O Supreme Lord, please reside-
In that location, where Brahmā and the rest
Of the Gods, all within my heart abide!

 6. Salutations to the Consort of Parvatī, (to You),
O Hara, O Mahādeva!

3) आसनम् – Āsanam

O Soul of the universe! Salutations to You,
 Who, in the expanse of one's consciousness, does live!
 This delightful throne embedded with jewels,
 O Treasure trove of compassion, I do Thee give!

4) पाद्यम् – Pādyam

To the Arrow-wielder, to Nectar Himself,
 To the Cause of all well-being, my reverence!
 I offer this water to wash Your feet-
 To the One for whom Kailāsa is residence!

5) अर्घ्यम् – Arghyam

To the Bestower of invaluable fruit - liberation -
 Described in texts that are held divine,
 I offer water to wash the hands to the One
 Who, as Pure Consciousness, does shine.

6) आचमनम् – Āchamanam

O One who supports the entire world,
 O One who requires no foundation,
 O Great Lord! O Most Attractive One!
 I offer You water and my salutation!

7) स्नानम् – Snānam

O One who is by the Gaṅgā drenched,
 And whose matted hair is thus weighed down,
 O Nectar Himself, O One who wears
 The half moon at His crown,
 Bathe with these waters, O Lord most Great,
 Which from rivers I did accumulate!

8) वस्त्रम् – Vastram

O One whose cloth is the directions,
 Salutations to You, O Elephant-skin-wearer too!
 O One whose upper cloth is tiger-skin,
 I offer two pieces of cloth to You!

9) यज्ञोपवीतम् – Yajñopavitam

All that move and all that do not-
 Whatever exists in the worlds by far
 Are gems! And they are woven upon
 You, who as Support, the Thread are!
 I offer the sacred thread to Thee,
 Whose sacred thread the serpent does be!

10) भस्मम् – Bhasmam

Born of Agnihotra - fires that are sacred,
 And sanctified by the Virajā sacrifice -
 Accept such ash, O Master, who confers
 Upon devotees all that in which divinity lies!

11) गन्धः – Gandhaḥ

To the One bestowing fruit upon barrenness,
 Salutations to that Fragrant-bodied One,
 I offer You sandal-paste, O One who did lead
 The demon Andhaka to his complete destruction.

12) अक्षताः – Akshatāḥ

O Lord, worshipped by actualized ones
 And Gandharva-s as well! Most Attractive God too!
 Accept these grains, of unbroken white rice,
 And be a boon giver to me. Salutations to You!

1 3) पुष्पम् – Pushpam

Growing in the forest of the Turiya State,
 Of bliss supreme - such fragrance to show -
 Accept this bloom, O Somesha,
 O Destroyer of the wielder of the flower-bow!

1 4) बिल्वपत्रम् – Bilvapatram

Three-leaved and of tri-quality-form,
 Three-eyed and of weapons three -
 A single Bilva as homage to Shiva -
 Destroys all sins amassed in lives three!

1 5) धूपः – Dhūpaḥ

O, You who are Lord of the Mountain's daughter,
 O Heavy matted-haired One! O Dazzling Radiance!
 I offer You, Lord, incense to smell -
 With fragrant resins woven into its very essence.

1 6) दीपः – Dipaḥ

I offer to the creator of all auspiciousness,
 A lamp with its wick doused in ghee!
 O You whose eyes are Sun, Moon and Flame,
 Upon this lamp let Your gaze be!

1 7) नैवेद्यम् – Naivedyam

1. Having cleansed my hands and having placed this food before (the Deity), having sprinkled upon it water sanctified by the Gāyatrī, having concealed it with tulasī leaves - this then is the naivedyam.

2. We know You to be That Male-Principle!
As the Great Lord we meditate upon You!
We call upon the Terrifying One to inspire us,
To progress in our wisdom and meditation too!
3. With the mantra Svāhā may this food nourish
The airs that are considered to vital be-
Prāṇa, Apāna, Vyāna, Udāna,
And Samāna, each which sustains the body.
4. O Crescent-crowned One, please accept,
This food which is worthy of being offered to You!
Of six types of flavour; food drenched in ghee;
And mixed with honey and milk too!

18) ताम्बूलम् - Tāmbūlam

Accept this tāmbūla -mouth freshener it be -
O One whose garland is the serpent king!
Areca nuts with many a powdered spice,
And betel leaves that from the Nāgavallī spring.

19) दक्षिणा - Dakṣhiṇā

O Lord of wealth-givers, O Lord of all Gods,
O You whose mascot the bull doth be!
Please accept this excellent gift of wealth,
Given by me according to my capacity.

20) नीराजनम् – Nirājanam

1. To the Lord, Umā's spouse, to the Teacher of the Gods,
To the universe's Cause, obeisance I pay -
To the One adorned by serpents and
To the Deer-holder I do pray,
To the Master of all beings that are,
To Him - the Sun-Moon-Fire eyed One,
To the One who Kṛṣṇa deeply loves,
I pay my reverent salutation!
To Him who is the devoted ones' Sanctuary,
To the One who is Boon-giver as well,
To Auspiciousness Himself, my obeisance,
To Him who as Good-doer does dwell.

2. To Peace-incarnate, who is seated in
The lotus pose, my salutation!
To the One who holds the moon at His crown,
To the Five-faced and the Three-eyed One!
To the One who at His right side does
The spear, lightning and sword too hold
The axe and the hand gesture which gives
Fearlessness - the art of being bold;
And at His left side, the serpent and noose,
The bell, the drum, the goad as well,
Radiant with several ornaments,
He, who as Pārvatī's Lord, does dwell!
I bow down before the Lord who sports
The complexion which a crystal-bead courts!

3. I salute the One who is as camphor fair,
Compassion's very embodiment!

I salute the Essence of the universe,
 Whose necklace is the king-serpent!
 To the One who, in my heart-lotus,
 Resides with Bhavānī eternally,
 To the One who is Existence Himself,
 I pray! To Him my homage does be!

4. You alone are my mother, You alone my father,
 You alone are my relative, my friend - You alone!
 You alone are knowledge, wealth alone You are!
 You alone are all! O my Lord, my Lord own!
5. This light of pure brilliance, with flames shooting high,
 Along with the resonance of the bell, I offer completely -
 To the One who overcomes death and to Him
 Who destroyed the demons' cities three.

2 1) मन्त्रपुष्पाञ्जलिः - Mantrapushpāñjaliḥ

O Destroyer! O Support of the entire universe,
 O One who needs neither support nor sanctuary!
 O Lord, accept these flowers in my cupped palms,
 O Someshwara, salutations to Thee!

2 2) प्रदक्षिणा - Pradakṣhiṇā

To the Destroyer of difficulties at every step,
 To the Restrainer of Illusion's random stroll,
 O Foe of the cities, for Your pleasure is this -
 My circumambulation of You - a hundredfold!

23) प्रार्थना- Prārthanā

No other shelter, no other haven!
 My refuge You alone do be!
 From the depths of Your compassion, therefore,
 O Supreme Lord, do protect me!

24) नमस्कारः- Namaskārah

To the Death-Conqueror, to the Agony-giver*
 To the Blue-throated and the Auspicious One,
 To the Lord of Immortality, to the Arrow-wielder,
 To the Great Lord, to You this salutation!

Literally: the One who makes you cry. The Lord creates a restlessness within the devotee which causes him to realise that his happiness does not lie in the material world. This then makes him turn towards the Lord.*

25) विशेषार्घ्यम् - Visheshārgyam

Thou art Boon-giver, Fulfiller of desires,
 Bestow that boon for which I pine!
 With this water and fruit that I offer as arghya,
 May success and achievement always be mine!

26) प्रार्थनापूर्वकं क्षमापनम् - Prārthanāpūrvakam kshamāpanam

1. I know not how to invoke You, O Lord,
 Your worship-rite I know not how to end!
 Your worship itself, I know not to perform,
 O Supreme Lord, do Thou forgiveness extend!

2. You must forgive, O Lord of all Gods!
 Forgive! O Lord of the entire earth!
 May my devotion at Your Lotus Feet,
 Be eternal and of unflinching worth!

27) समर्पणम् – Samarpaṇam

1. O One who is Eternally Auspicious,
 Tolerate my every transgression!
 In an ocean of trouble is this one sunk -
 Raise him to lofty elevation!
 With my entire self, I, this pitiable one -
 I, who have no other sanctuary,
 Have sought refuge at Your Lotus Feet!
 Have sought safe haven, O Swāmi!
2. Sins have fled! Unhappiness gone!
 And poverty has disappeared too!
 Bliss, wealth and virtues have all come in-
 Just by having sighted You!
3. The Lord is the Giver, the Enjoyer as well,
 The world, the Lord's own form does be!
 The Lord triumphs at places all,
 He who is Lord, why, I too am He!
4. May Lord Bhavānīshaṅkar, Mahārudra be pleased with this pūjā offered by me! May all of this be offered to Bramhan.

5. Thou, who art Guard to the deepest secret,
Accept this japa which has been done by me,
By Your Grace, O Goddess Most Great,
May my fulfillment come to be!

 6. Thou, who art Guard to the deepest secret,
Accept this japa which has been done by me,
By Your Grace, O Lord Most Great,
May my fulfillment come to be!

 7. In that location which belongs to the Supreme -
Your own place, O Supreme Lord, please reside -
In that location, where Brahmā and the rest
Of the Gods, all within my heart abide!

 8. Salutations to the Consort of Parvatī, (to You), O Hara, O Mahādeva!

Appendix 4

Translation of Shri Devi-Pūjana-Shloka-s

1) ध्यानम् – Dhyānam

1. To the One with the brilliance of a lightning streak,
Who stands at the shoulder of the Master of all,
To the Terrifying One, my service I offer,
To the One upon whose beck and call
Are those damsels who serve Her well,
With radiant scimitars and clubs in hand!
I worship the One characterized by
The discus, the mace, the club and
The arrow, the bow and the noose too,
The upright forefinger which duly warns;
To the Radiant One, Fire Herself,
To the One whom the Moon deftly adorns!
To Durgā, Who takes one through each difficulty,
To the Three-eyed-one, does my worship be!

2. One should reflect upon the Mother Supreme Whose form is that of vermilion red,
The Three-eyed one, of ruby-crown
With bright moon too upon Her head;
Of smiling face; a full, high bust,
In one hand a jewelled cup, nectar replete;
The other holding a red lotus bloom,
Of gentle stance; her red feet,
Upon a pot with a gem-inlay.
Upon Such should one's attention stay.

3. During japa, one should invoke that Mother-
 Smear'd with vermilion- a complexion red,
 With the fragrance of musk, thus by bees kissed,
 Her eyes to gentle slight smile wed,
 Holding the arrow, bow, noose and goad,
 Attracting all folk - no exception too!
 Adorn'd with red garlands and clothes,
 Radiant- the China rose's hue!
 Upon such Her form should one pay heed,
 When in japa, to one's mind lead.

2) आवाहनम् - Āvāhanam

O You who dwell in the interiors of
 The great woods' where lotus blooms do lie,
 Bliss-form's Cause, the Welfare of all,
 Please come, O Mother, O Goddess Most High!

*Body; Chakra-s

3) आसनम् - Āsanam

O Great Goddess, who rests upon the thigh
 Of the Eternally Auspicious One,
 O Support of all, accept this divine seat
 Made with all Elements together spun!

4) पाद्यम् - Pādyam

Striven to be known by those who study Veda-s,
 To such a One - beginning-less and end-less too,
 This clean fragrant water to wash Your feet.
 O Lotus-eyed One, I offer to You.

5) अर्घ्यम् - Arghyam

Accept this water for Your hands, Sinless One,
In which eight auspicious articles abide!
O, Revered by the One who on a lotus sits,
O, You who as Mother of all worlds, reside!

6) आचमनम् - Āchamanam

O Great Fortune Herself! O, Existence's Consort!
Towards whom Bhava does passionate be!
May this water, collected from the Gaṅgā and placed
In a gold container, be sipped by Thee!

7) स्नानम् - Snānam

O, Foremost amongst virtuous women!
Esteemed by the holy on virtuous path!
This water, from sacred pilgrimage spots-
May it be accepted for Your bath!

8) वस्त्रम् - Vastram

Two drapes of fine cloth and a blouse,
All divine and attracting attention,
O Goddess of Gods! Accept these please!
O Beloved of Shiva- that direction-clad One!

9) यज्ञोपवीतम् - Yajñopavitam

O Umā, Thou who art golden Thyself!
Of splendour unique! Of splendour grand!
Be pleased to accept this sacred thread,
Interwoven with many a golden strand!

1 0) आभूषणम् – Abhūṣaṇam

This neclace proclaiming wedded life,
 Made of auspicious beads, interwoven with pearl,
 Has been given to You! Accept it Mother,
 And auspiciousness then please do unfurl!

1 1) गन्धः – Gandhaḥ

Please accept, O You who directs life's very forces
 Of the One who bears a bowl in His palm,
 This sandal paste with camphor, unguent and musk,
 For smearing upon Your limbs as balm.

1 2) अक्षताः – Akshataḥ

Accept these white and unbroken grains
 Of rice that do so auspicious be,
 Coated again with turmeric and saffron,
 O Goddess, O Mother! O Treasure Trove of mercy!

1 3) पुष्पम् – Puṣpam

With the lotus, shaṅkha-bloom and the China rose,
 With the Pārijāta and the Champaka too,
 I worship You, O Empress of the worlds,
 O Lotus-eyed One, may it please You!

1 4) सौभाग्यद्रव्यम् – Saubhāgyadravyam

Collyrium, vermilion dust, turmeric and kuṅkuma,
 These have been offered with devotion much.
 O Divine Mother, please accept them all-
 These substances of auspicious touch.

1 5) धूपः – Dhūpaḥ

I offer You incense that does delight,
 With fragrant resin and spice combined.
 Accept it, Great Goddess, fulfiller of
 All desires in devotees' mind.

1 6) दीपः – Dipaḥ

O Mountain King's family's very Light!
 Mother, look at this lamp given by me!
 O Destroyer of darkness that lies within,
 Look at this lamp - wick coated in ghee!

1 7) नैवेद्यम् – Naivedyam

1. Having cleansed my hands and having placed this food before (the Deity), having sprinkled upon it water sanctified by the Gāyatrī, having concealed it with tulasī leaves - this then is the naivedyam.
2. We know You to be the collective Lustre of Gods!
 As the New Effulgence we meditate upon You!
 We call upon the Navigator to inspire us,
 To progress in our wisdom and meditation too!
3. With the mantra Svāhā may this food nourish
 The airs that are considered to vital be -
 Prāṇa, Apāna, Vyāna, Udāna,
 And Samāna, each which sustains the body.
4. Eatables and condiments of several kinds!
 O Hara's - the Destroyer's - Beloved One!
 Of six flavours and four varieties,
 Partake what You'd like of this naivedyam!

18) ताम्बूलम् - Tāmbūlam

O You who reside in the cities three -
 In the bodies- Gross, Subtle and Causal too,
 May this betel leaf, warding off stiffness of the tongue,
 With powdered pearl and camphor, be accepted by You!

19) दक्षिणा - Dakṣiṇā

O Completeness Herself! O, One who bestows
 The fruit of completion! Accept this gift from me -
 A gift of wealth - abounding in gold and gems,
 So that this worship, lends itself to totality !

20) नीराजनम् - Nirājanam

1. I salute the One who is as camphor fair,
 Compassion's very embodiment!
 I salute the Essence of the universe,
 Whose necklace is the king-serpent!
 To the One who, in my heart-lotus,
 Resides with Bhavānī eternally,
 To the One who is Existence Himself,
 I pray! To Him my homage does be!
2. You alone are my mother, You alone my father,
 You alone are my relative, my friend - You alone!
 You alone are knowledge, wealth alone You are!
 You alone are all! O my Lord, my Lord own!

3. You are
 Māyā - the power of Consciousness,
 Kuṇḍalinī - one's own hidden energy
 Kriyā, spontaneous dynamism,
 The essence of all Joy - Madhumatī!
 Kālī, the power that wields time
 Kalā - the subtlest creativity,
 Mālinī - the letters that hold the universe,
 The Benevolent Boon-giver, Mātāṅgī!
 Vijayā - conquest over one's senses,
 Jayā - granting release from action and
 Inaction and the fruit thereof;
 Bhagavatī of six, eternal glories grand!
 Devī - the radiant Divinity,
 Shiva - the Auspicious, with joy replete,
 Shāmbhavī - Conscious Awareness and Shakti - Creator, Sustainer, Destroyer - complete!
 Shiva's love, Shaṅkaravallabhā,
 Trinayanā, the One with eyes three
 Vāgvādinī, propelling thought and word,
 The power of Prosperity - Bhairavī!
 Hrīnkārī - The resonant Goddess-principle,
 Tripurā - residing in the bodies three,
 Endowed with self revelation as well as
 Self consciousness - Parātparamayī,
 Mātā - the Original Source You are,
 Kumarī - New effulgence, divine by far!
4. Having made the internal and external light one
 There is now limitless luminosity!
 Having waved these lights three times around,
 O Radiant One, I offer it to Thee!

5. O Radiant One, You rule all cyclic forces,
 O New One, upon Time Your sovereignty!
 O You, Actualization Complete, please accept
 This waving of lamps performed by me.

2 1) मन्त्र पुष्पाञ्जलिः – Mantrapushpāñjaliḥ

O the very Image of the Supreme Brahman,
 Accept these flowers which in cupped palms be,
 Offered with devotion, O Radiant One,
 May You then be pleased eternally!

2 2) प्रदक्षिणा – Pradakṣhiṇā

To receive auspiciousness and benefit as well,
 O Mother, so that sin may be turned away,
 I circumambulate You! May You be pleased!
 O Ruler Supreme, who upon all hold sway!

2 3) प्रार्थना – Prārthanā

Having worshipped well Your two Lotus Feet
 With many lotuses - several in count,
 And offered a wreath made of lotuses of gold
 A wreath upon Your neck to mount,
 And upon Your head, having now placed
 Flowers in cupped palms - blooms so red,
 In the core, in the centre of the lotus of my heart,
 O Radiant One, do Thou joy there spread!

24) नमस्कारः – Namaskārah

Salutations to the Goddess, the Great Goddess!
To the Propitious One, our eternal salutation!
With enjoined palms, we bow before Her,
Salutations to Nature, to the Auspicious One!

25) विशेषार्घ्यम् – Visheshārg̃hyam

O Consort of Shiva, Mother of the Universe!
O Image of Existence, Bliss and Consciousness,
Accept this worship with love, O Mother!
May You be pleased, O Supreme Empress!

26) प्रार्थनापूर्वकं क्षमापनम् – Prārthanāpūrvakam̃ kshamāpanam

1. A thousand transgressions are performed by me,
Both during the day and at night as well!
'He is a servant'- having considered me thus,
Forgive me, O You, who as Empress does dwell!
2. The one who serves does make a mistake,
At every step does a transgression be!
Except for the Mother, who else in this world,
Can tolerate such a thing so patiently?

27) समर्पणम् – Samarpanam

1. As Your worship may my actions appear-
My prattle - Your name's constant repetition!
As mudra-s - the hand gestures at worship-time -
My work, its various kinds of expression!
My walking around, my loitering -
Circumambulations of You, clockwise done,

All that I eat for my nourishment -
 As food offered to You in oblation!
 As prostrations of You upon the ground -
 My lying down when I must rest!
 My entire self, a dedication to You -
 When I experience joy, experience zest!

2. May the Divine Mother of the Universe, the Supreme Consciousness be pleased with this pūjā offered by me! May all of this be offered to Bramhan. May all this be offered to the Mother of the Universe!
3. Thou, who art Guard to the deepest secret,
 Accept this japa which has been done by me,
 By Your Grace, O Goddess Most Great,
 May my fulfillment come to be!
4. Thou, who art Guard to the deepest secret,
 Accept this japa which has been done by me,
 By Your Grace, O Lord Most Great,
 May my fulfillment come to be!
5. In that location which belongs to the Supreme-
 Your own place, O Supreme Goddess, please reside-
 In that location, where Bramhā and the rest.
 Of the Gods, all within my heart abide!
6. Salutations to the Consort of Parvatī, (to You), O Hara, O Mahādeva!
